10:00 a.m. - 12:00 noon	Every Bird Can Sing Blending a sense of humor with a sense of professional obligation, Pete Hall shares the true rags-to-riches story of Anderson Elementary, a turnaround school where he was principal in Reno, Nevada. Anderson, once the only school in Nevada to fail to make AYP for four consecutive years, transformed into the only Title I school in the state to earn a High Achieving designation under Pete's leadership. How did they do it? What were the keys? Which of his experiences are replicable and meaningful for today's school leaders? Hear the answers to these and more, as Pete tells tales from the trenches, shares the 12 elements of successful schools, and inspires participants to go forth with a renewed sense of hope and enthusiasm for the challenges ahead!	Mr. Pete Hall, Former Principal and Current Faculty Member, ASCD Room: Salon B
