

RICK WORMELI
KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Alabama Conference on Grading and Assessment for Learning is a conference for Alabama educators. Presented jointly by five state-level organizations, it is designed to be a forum for examining grading and assessment practices, for deepening professional competencies in using those practices to drive learning forward and for networking with educators passionate about both. Rick Wormelli, renowned author and presenter on grading and assessment, headlines the conference. Registration includes a copy of his book Fair is Not Always Equal.
